ALUMNAE OATH

I solemnly pledge my loyal and steadfast support of Holy Angels. I will hold high its principles, maintain its traditions, stay connected and continue to call myself an Angel with pride.

I promise to be a leader, to embrace change and growth, demonstrate integrity, and respect the dignity of all people.

I promise to be an inquisitive critical thinker and to approach problem-solving with creativity and intellectual curiosity.

I promise to be an ambassador of faith through prayer, reflection, friendship, sacrament and service.

I promise to be balanced and resilient and to use tools and resilience to face challenges and adversity with grace.

I promise to be a global citizen embracing diversity and responding to the needs of humanity in my community and beyond.

Most of all, I promise to continue to make Holy Angels proud by sharing my gifts with others, staying true to myself, and always holding tight my unbreakable bond with all my Angels in sisterhood.

Alma Mater, all hail!
